

BABA BRINKMAN – LIT HOP | RELEASE DATE APRIL 3, 2007

- International performing sensation Baba Brinkman releases his 3rd full-length LP “Lit Hop” on his independent label Lit Fuse Records on April 3, 2007. Lit Hop was mostly recorded while touring in the UK in the summer of 2006, and the result is an album steeped in musical momentum and innovation.
- “Lit Hop” features collaborations with Canadian hip-hop stars Josh Martinez and Moka Only, as well as UK Slam Champion MC Dizraeli and enlists the skills of the UK Production Teams of Torez, Infinite Potential and Lucid Notion of Covert Recording. The CD represents a rare collaboration between Canadian and UK hip-hop culture.
- “Lit Hop” is an album that is eclectic, musically rich and lyrically groundbreaking, as Baba Brinkman infuses every track with his original verbal pyrotechnics. The album also features “John Deere Green” a bluegrass-infused track produced by Jonny Quality (famous for an appearance on Fatboy Slim’s “Palookaville”).
- Baba Brinkman is a Vancouver-based hip-hop artist, actor, and medieval scholar and the originator of The Rap Canterbury Tales, a one-man performance that recreates Chaucer’s 14th century masterpiece in an exciting hip-hop context.
- Since 2004, The Rap Canterbury Tales has appeared at dozens of colleges, high schools, public theatres and arts festivals across the UK, Australia and North America. The Rap Canterbury Tales is also available as a full-length CD and as an illustrated paperback.
- Look for Baba Brinkman on the road this summer across North America touring in support of Lit Hop and at select Fringe Festivals with The Rap Canterbury Tales.
